The Tribunal has some 33 heads of jurisdiction, considering the disposition and release of persons acquitted of crimes by reason of mental illness; determining matters concerning persons found unfit to be tried, and prisoners transferred to hospital for treatment; reviewing the cases of detained patients (both civil and forensic), and long-term voluntary psychiatric patients; hearing appeals against a medical superintendent's refusal to discharge a patient; making, varying and revoking community treatment and community counselling orders; determining applications for certain treatments and surgery; and making orders for financial management where people are unable to make competent decisions for themselves because of psychiatric disability.

In performing its role the Tribunal actively seeks to pursue the objectives of the Mental Health Act, including delivery of the best possible kind of care to each patient in the least restrictive environment; and the requirements of the United Nations principles for the protection of persons with mental illness and the improvement of mental health care, including the requirement that "the treatment and care of every patient shall be based on an individually prescribed plan, discussed with the patient, reviewed regularly, revised as necessary and provided by qualified professional staff".

1. PRESIDENT'S REPORT - 2006 in Review

On 3 April 2006 I took up my appointment as the President of the NSW Mental Health Review Tribunal, having stepped down from the Supreme Court of New South Wales a little over a year earlier. I was also required to conduct a review of the forensic provisions of the Mental Health Acts and an administrative review of the Tribunal.

I came to the Tribunal with the intention that, in the role of President, and in the conduct of the reviews I would seek to further the goal of achieving the least restrictive, but effective treatment and care for involuntary, civil and forensic patients, having regard to their and the Community's safety. This is the core object of the Mental Health Act 1990 and of the various international conventions on mental health to which Australia is party. This goal can be achieved to some extent, as well as by reforming and revising where necessary the administrative processes, by the proper operation of the Tribunal recommending changes to the Acts.

The Tribunal has an essential role to perform to determine on treatment and detention of civil patients, which role is likely to continue under the new Act. The legislative reforms for forensic patients I have been asked to consider include important questions of principle of whether the Executive, the Courts or the Tribunal should determine conditions of care, treatment and release as well as many other issues. The Consultation Paper can be found on the Tribunal website.

As well as my having been asked to review the Tribunal's administrative processes I have been tasked with the continuous revision of the operation and policies of the Tribunal. I address below these matters and a number of other matters which have provided significant concern and challenges during the year.

Increase in Hearings.

I found the Tribunal facing a substantial increase over past years in the number of hearings necessary for it to perform its statutory duties, and in consequence, suffering considerable pressure on its budget, staff and members. Steps have been taken to seek further assistance from the Department of Health, and the Tribunal processes have come under immediate review to attempt to ameliorate the impact of these factors. The hard work of the staff has mainly dealt with the increased hearing load without requiring additional staff, but that has imposed considerable strain on a limited staff with insufficient numbers to provide backup. In the Registrar's report can be found the reference to Appendix 4 setting out the organisational structure and staffing of the Tribunal. In 2006 the staff to hearings ratios are 1:618.

| Year | Hearings Held | Number of Staff | Ratio of Staff to hearings |
|------|---------------|-----------------|----------------------------|
| 1991 | 2232          | 11              | 203                        |
| 1992 | 2595          | 12              | 216                        |
| 1993 | 2844          | 15              | 190                        |
| 1994 | 3310          | 15              | 221                        |
| 1995 | 3906          | 15              | 260                        |
| 1996 | 4916          | 15              | 328                        |
| 1997 | 6013          | 15              | 401                        |
| 1998 | 5271          | 15              | 351                        |
| 1999 | 5831          | 15              | 389                        |
| 2000 | 6037          | 15              | 402                        |
| 2001 | 6931          | 15              | 462                        |
| 2002 | 7478          | 15              | 498                        |
| 2003 | 8619          | 15              | 575                        |
| 2004 | 8189          | 15              | 612                        |
| 2005 | 9389          | 15              | 626                        |
| 2006 | 10505         | 17              | 618                        |

When these figures are added to the table provided in the 2005 report, it can be seen that the number of hearings has continued to increase and that the increased workload for both members and staff is a matter to which it will be necessary for me to devote considerable attention. I shall consider these matters further in the Administrative Reviews.

Members

In the 2005 Annual President's Report the then President, Associate Professor Chappell, referred to issues concerning the term of members appointments, and that those issues had remained unresolved.

Immediately prior to my coming to the Tribunal, it had embarked on a process of recruiting "the biggest infusion of new members since the foundation of the Tribunal." Many members had stood down and many new members had been appointed.

Following my appointment, a correspondence with the Minister was initiated with a view to developing a regular cycle of appointments with defined substantial tenure, and it is hoped that at the forthcoming round of recruitments the Tribunal will be able to indicate to prospective members that, subject to selection by an external review process, members should be able to expect an initial term of three years, and on satisfactory performance a second term of equivalent length. The opportunity for casual appointments, particularly to replace those who had stepped down during the cycle of appointments, will also be available to the Minister and we welcome the following members who have been so appointed: Mr Richard Gulley, Mr David Hartstein, Mr John Hislop, Dr Olav Nielssen, Prof Peter Shea, Prof Christopher Tennant, Mr Michael Gerondis and Ass Prof Stephen Woods.

The Tribunal also welcomes the Honourable Terry Christie QC, a former Judge of the District Court, who has been appointed as a part-time Deputy President. Mr Christie's appointment is in accord with the Tribunal having appointed to it, members with a particular expertise base for sitting in forensic reviews. It is expected there will be further appointments of former judges and specialist forensic psychiatrists, to give the Tribunal's forensic role the benefit of appropriate specialised skills.

The Presidential staff of the Tribunal may be expected in the New Year to include additional appointments as Deputy Presidents. It is contemplated that both the President and Deputy President Maria Bisogni will remain full-time, and that Ms Bisogni in particular will have a focus on the civil area of the Tribunal's work, with part time Deputy Presidents particularly focused on that area and appropriately skilled.

The Tribunal should acknowledge the service and contribution made by those members who in 2006 had stepped down or were not reappointed to the Tribunal. In particular, the Tribunal should record its thanks to Associate Professor Duncan Chappell, my predecessor as President, who has left the Tribunal to return to an academic life at the University of Sydney Law School and as Director of the Institute of Criminology. Professor Chappell had, over the five years of his appointment, served the Tribunal most assiduously.

The Tribunal should also record its debt of gratitude to Mr William Tearle, Deputy President, who has stepped down from that office, but remains a member of the Tribunal, and who in particular has shouldered the responsibility of educational sessions.

Members Professional Development

Professional Development nights have been conducted for the members during the year and the Hearing Kit and Members Manual have now been disseminated. The kits have been provided not only to the members, but to all agencies, and are available on the website. Use of it by agencies has improved the provision of the necessary information to Tribunal panels.

Review Of The Mental Health Act 1990

During 2005 – 2006 as detailed in earlier reports, the Government had conducted a wide-ranging review of the Mental Health Act 1990. That review resulted in an Exposure Mental Health Bill. However the Government determined that more work was necessary and further consultation should be had on the forensic provisions of the Mental Health Act 1990 and the Mental Health (Criminal Procedure) Act 1990.

As noted above, at my taking up of the appointment of President, the Minister for Health, the Minister Assisting the Minister for Health (Mental Health) and the Attorney-General entrusted me with the task of reviewing the forensic provisions of the Mental Health Act, the Mental Health (Criminal Procedures) Act 1990 and also chairing a Task Force of ministerially appointed highly skilled experts to consider reforms of principle in the area. That review led to the publication of a Consultation Paper dealing with the major areas of principle, released shortly prior to the end of 2006.

The consultation process will be undertaken in the early part of 2007 with a view to my reporting to the Ministers by August 2007.

In consequence of the Government determining on that review, it was further determined that the Mental Health Bill would be introduced into the House in the form already determined, and additional minor amendments might later be made by a Miscellaneous Amendments Bill. Reforms to the forensic provisions may be affected by a separate Act.

The Draft Exposure Bill has now been out before the public for nearly a year and it is expected that in the New Year it will pass into law.

Administrative Review

In addition to the review of the forensic provisions of the Mental Health Act 1990 and the Mental Health (Criminal Procedure) Act 1990 I have been tasked by the Minister for Health and the Minister Assisting the Minister for Health (Mental Health) with conducting an Administrative Review of the operations of the Tribunal and its operations with other agencies. In that exercise I have had the assistance of Ms Amanda English of the Local Courts branch of Attorney-General and Justice and Mr John Feneley, Deputy Director-General of the Department of Attorney-General and Justice.

The Ministers expect that review to be an intensive examination of the staffing, membership, resources and processes of the Tribunal as well as its relations with Government Departments, hospitals and other agencies. It is also expected that the report on the administrative review will be provided to the Minister in August 2007 since any recommended reforms in the forensic area are liable to impact on the Tribunal's administration.

Civil Team and Jurisdiction

The civil team is responsible for the day to day scheduling and management of all applications in the civil jurisdiction. This is done by liaising with patients and clients, applicants, venue co-ordinators, Tribunal members and other people involved in a matter. This requires expertise, tact and perseverance. In 2006 we experienced further increases in our civil hearing load, with total hearings exceeding 9500.

The challenges for the civil team are largely attributable to the increasing number of hearings sought and the unpredictable timing of such applications. These demands increase pressure on staff and resources as well as requiring increasing flexibility from members. Staff in the civil team have therefore been under ongoing and increasing pressure to schedule hearings in a timely and efficient manner.

With the frequent changes to scheduling and constant last minute changes our members are being asked to be more flexible than ever before. The civil team has policies in place for the scheduling of our hearings to ensure panels are given adequate time to deal with matters appropriately.

The increased demand for hearings has meant constant juggling of our face-to-face and telephone/video panels to maximise the number of hearing time slots available. This often means requiring panels to return from venues to conduct additional hearings at Gladesville; combining panels so that panels visit several sites in the one day and constant communication with hospital staff, members and the Mental Health Advocacy Service.

The hospitals and community mental health agencies which generate applications to the Tribunal, are also facing pressure on their services. The Tribunal has responded to the changing needs of hospitals and health care agencies by changing the venue where hearings are held in some areas. For example, the Tribunal now attends Wyong Hospital on a regular basis and has provided extra sitting days to Wollongong Hospital and Community Mental Health in response to increased demand. The civil team has also made efforts to set up additional Tribunal panels for venues on a needs basis to allow hearings to be conducted when the demand for hearings exceeds the available time slots. Often the request for extra hearings is not known until close to the expiry date of patient orders, posing scheduling dilemmas for the Mental Health Advocacy Service solicitors, and impacting on the Tribunal's ability to set up a panel at short notice.

The passing of the new Mental Health Act, which will make provision for the making of Community Treatment Orders (CTOs) for persons in the community, may substantially relieve the listing pressures. However, despite the efforts of the Tribunal staff, at present there are still problems with some hospitals and agencies, particularly on their providing the necessary detail for Treatment Plans for CTOs, with early preparation for reviews and hearings and with concerns about the adequacy of information and reports for reviews. There are also concerns with expiry dates for orders, applications for adjournments made at the last minute and difficulties in clinicians understanding the monitoring function of the Tribunal's role in ECT determinations.

To try to avoid these concerns, the Tribunal has conducted training sessions for Tribunal Liaison Clerks and community education sessions as well as the President and Dr Shea providing assistance to the Institute of Psychiatry course for new Registrars. These, combined with the President's Review Consultations, have led to over 20 visits to establishments and sessions with health practitioners.

The Tribunal continues to seek increased cooperation from hospitals, community health centres and other agencies concerned in the treatment of patients. The necessity for the Tribunal to be properly provided with information as set out in the hearing kit has had to be emphasised from time to time by direct communication with the agencies or hospitals and with area executives. Increasingly, the Tribunal's educational program of providing Presidential and other members to give seminars, papers and educational sessions at hospitals, community health centres and other facilities has contributed to increased cooperation and a higher standard of reporting to the Tribunal.

Forensic Team and Jurisdiction

The role of the forensic team is to manage the review of forensic patients in accordance with the Mental Health Act (1990) NSW and the Mental Health (Criminal Procedure) Act (1990) NSW. The forensic team is required to have a detailed understanding of these legislative provisions. As the status of forensic patients is subject to review and change, this work also requires regular contact with criminal justice and health agencies to ensure information about forensic patients is current and accurate. Additionally, the forensic jurisdiction is highly specialised, leading to a constant demand for the forensic team to provide information about legislation, process and procedures to government and non government agencies, doctors, lawyers, members of the public and forensic patients themselves.

There were a number of challenges faced by the forensic team during the year. The number of forensic hearings held in 2006 increased by 24% compared to 2005. To the credit of the forensic team, this large increase in the number of hearings was accommodated with an increase of only 0.6 of one position.

Part of the rise in the number of hearings was related to changes to the legislation requiring the Tribunal to review those found unfit to be tried by the Court and released on bail. Prior to 2006, the Tribunal was only required to review those found unfit and detained in custody. Due to the fluctuating jurisdiction of the Tribunal in relation to fitness and limiting term forensic patients, much time has been spent by the forensic staff ensuring that all patients are reviewed according to the statutory requirements. Negotiations with both District and Supreme Courts are ongoing to ensure that all relevant documents are forwarded to the Tribunal in a timely manner in these matters, as well as upon the finding of not guilty by reason of mental illness.

The Tribunal has continued to work closely with the Statewide Forensic Mental Health Directorate, and in particular, the Forensic Executive Support Unit (FESU) and the Community Forensic Mental Health Service (CFMHS) as the Memorandum of Understanding has been implemented. As this process is being rolled out, treating teams are required to signal their intention to seek leave or conditional or unconditional release in advance of the hearing. Both FESU and CFMHS then work with the treating teams to ensure that all relevant information is before the Tribunal at the time of review, and that any delay in the Minister's consideration of complex cases will be minimised.

The Tribunal's work with victims of forensic patients also continues with a revised procedure set out in a new information brochure produced for registered victims. In summary, this procedure provides for registered victims to attend Tribunal hearings, if the registered victim so chooses and the venue where the hearing is being held allows, and for registered victims to be included in the entire hearing and to make submissions if the registered victim so chooses, and the forensic patient does not object and the Tribunal does not uphold any objection.

During the year the Tribunal has had to give attention to a number of particular matters including:

The Tribunal has liaised with the Department and Morisset Hospital to devise appropriate segregation policies in keeping with the objects of the Act, at Morisset Hospital and Kestrel Unit.

- The President has met with the Magistrates and participated in education sessions with them on their and the Tribunal's roles under the present Act and as envisaged in the Exposure Bill.
- The President has corresponded with the Chief Judges of the Supreme Court and the District Court, and the Judicial Commission resulting in the revision and update of the Judge's Bench Book to reflect the recent changes in the Acts and changes in procedure.
- The Mental Health Screening Unit opened at the Metropolitan Reception and Remand Centre.
- During the year A Ward at Long Bay Hospital closed and the Mental Health Rehabilitation Hostel came on line leading to much greater opportunity for forensic patients. The building of the new hospital outside the gaol wall is happily proceeding quickly. This should result in much better provision for forensic patients to move out of gaols to hospital care. These developments are most welcome.
- The Tribunal has participated in the development of new procedures with the Department and FESU resulting in greater cooperation. There have been a number of consultations in order to develop standards for care, treatment, transfer and release conditions.
- Tribunal staff have liaised closely with Justice Health and the Department of Corrective Services to develop protocols for classification of patients to enable leave for forensic patients at Long Bay Prison Hospital and Long Bay Mental Health Rehabilitation Hostel.

The Effect of Recent Amendments

The amendments to the Mental Health (Criminal Procedure) Act 1990 will allow superior courts to release forensic patients on bail, conditionally or unconditionally, into the community, rather than ordering detention, have commenced to take effect. However, under those provisions unless such patients are released unconditionally, the court order operates in an interim manner only, pending the determination of the prescribed authority on the recommendation to the Tribunal. This is a matter to which attention is being given in the Forensic Review. In the report of 2005 a number of specific individual cases were referred to and they are the subject of examination, as are the principles referred to in them in the Forensic Review.

Protected Estates Act

The Tribunal has participated in the reviews of the Protected Estates Act, meeting with the Office of the Protective Commissioner and officers of the Attorney-General's Department on proposals for reform to that Act.

Conclusion

It has been a most intensive period for all and I am deeply grateful to the Deputy Presidents, the Members and the Tribunal Staff in a time of change and re-evaluation for coping so well with the pressures including, in particular, of my seeking to improve the Tribunal's performance of its statutory duty.

The Hon Greg James QC President

2. REGISTRAR'S REPORT - Review of Operations

2006 was another busy and challenging year for the staff and members of the Tribunal highlighted by a number of significant changes. This report provides a brief overview of the operations and range of functions performed by the Tribunal.

A Change in Presidency

Professor Duncan Chappell completed his 5 year term as President of the Tribunal in April 2006. The Tribunal is greatly appreciative of the contribution of Professor Chappell who led the Tribunal through a challenging period including the implementation of the changes recommended by the external review of the Tribunal completed by Mandala Consulting 2002.

The Tribunal was very pleased to welcome the Hon Greg James Q.C as our new President in early April. Our new President is a former Supreme Court Judge and brings a wealth of experience, expertise and energy to the Tribunal.

As mentioned in the President's report, the term of appointment of Mr William Tearle expired in October 2006. Although Mr Tearle continues his involvement with the Tribunal as a part time lawyer member, I would like to express our gratitude and appreciation for his support and contribution as Deputy President.

The Tribunal also welcomed the Hon Terry Christie Q.C. who was appointed in October 2006 as a part time Deputy President.

Premises

The Tribunal continues to conduct its business from our premises in the grounds of Gladesville Hospital. These premises include three modern hearing rooms all fitted with audio recording equipment and video-conferencing facilities. There are 2 separate waiting areas for use by people attending hearings and rooms available for advocates and representatives to meet with their clients prior to hearings.

One of the Tribunal's hearing rooms is made available for use by the Northern Territory Mental Health Review Tribunal 2-3 times per week for the conduct of their hearings by video conference using psychiatrist members located in New South Wales.

Staffing

Although the Tribunal has a small number of staff it is a hardworking and dedicated team without whom it would not be possible for the operations of the Tribunal to continue. Appendix 4 shows the organisational structure and staffing of the Tribunal as at 31 December 2006.

The number of hearings conducted by the Tribunal has increased more than fourfold since the Tribunal's first full year of operation in 1991. By contrast, staffing levels have remained relatively the same over this period. In recent years the increased workload has been absorbed through internal efficiencies and the increased use of information technology.

The Tribunal was assisted by appointments to two temporary positions during 2006. The first of these was a Registry Officer position shared between the civil and forensic team. This additional position was filled in January 2006 and has assisted both teams in dealing with the increasing workload.

The second temporary position was that of Executive Assistant to the President. This position was filled mid year and provides essential executive support directly to the President.

Tribunal Members

Appendix 3 provides a list of the members of the Tribunal as at 31 December 2006 and notes those members whose terms expired in 2006.

The Tribunal's membership reflects a sound gender balance with 48 female part time members and 51 male. There are 3 members who have indigenous backgrounds and 12 with culturally diverse backgrounds. A number of our part time members have a mental illness and bring a valuable consumer focus to the Tribunal's hearings and general operations. These members sit on a rotating roster of hearings according to their availability, preferences and the need for hearings. Most members sit between 2 and 4 times per month at regular venues.

The experience, expertise and dedication of these members is enormous. They are often required to attend and conduct hearings in very stressful circumstances at hospitals, community centres, correctional facilities and other venues.

In 2006 the Tribunal continued its programme of regular professional development sessions for its members. These sessions are conducted out of hours and no payment is made for members' attendance. The Tribunal is encouraged and appreciative of the high rate of attendance by members at these sessions. Topics covered in 2006 included the roles and responsibilities of members; the Protected Estates Act; common dilemmas with Community Treatment Orders; continuing condition and severe disturbance of mind; and the conduct of hearings and relationships with Agencies. Sessions also included consultation and discussion about the review of the Mental Health Act 1990, as well as the Forensic Review and Administrative Review being carried out by the President.

Hearings

In 2006 the Tribunal conducted 10505 hearings. This was 1116 more hearings than it conducted in 2005 (an 11.9% increase). Table A shows the number of hearings conducted each year since the Tribunal's first full year of operation in 1991 when it conducted a total of 2232 hearings.

In 2006 the Tribunal conducted:

- · 9522 civil patient reviews (for details see Table 1)
- · 361 Protected Estates reviews (for details see Table 26)
- 622 forensic patient reviews (for details see Table 27)

Details for each area of jurisdiction of the Tribunal are provided in the various statistical reports contained in this report. The Tribunal has a regular roster for both its civil and forensic hearing panels and conducted hearings at 43 venues across New South Wales in 2006. The civil hearing roster is shown in Appendix 6. Extra panels are convened on a needs basis to hear additional matters. The continued increase in the number of hearings conducted by the Tribunal places constant pressure on the Tribunal's schedule and roster in both the civil and forensic jurisdiction.

Although the Tribunal has a strong preference for conducting its hearings in person at a hospital or other venue convenient to the patient and other parties, this is not always practical or possible. The Tribunal has continued its use of telephone and video-conference hearings where necessary. In 2006, 4910 hearings were conducted in person (46.7%), 2146 by video (20.4%) and 3449 by telephone (32.8%). Table B shows the location and number of hearings conducted by video conference during 2006.

The Tribunal strongly supports the instillation and availability of video-conferencing facilities at hospitals and community mental health services. While most non-metropolitan hospitals and mental health services seem to have access to video-conferencing facilities, this is not the case for metropolitan sites.

Regular liaison with hearing venues is essential for the smooth running of the Tribunal's hearings. Venue coordinators or Tribunal Liaison clerks at each site provide invaluable assistance in the scheduling of matters; collation of evidence and other relevant information for the panels; contacting family members and advocates for the hearing; and supporting the work of the Tribunal on the day. Nevertheless the Tribunal is frequently constrained by the limited resources and facilities available at hospitals and prisons. Most venues do not have an appropriate waiting area for family members and patients prior to their hearing. There are safety and security concerns at a number of venues, with panels utilising hearing rooms without adequate points of access or ventilation. Essential resources such as telephones with speaker capacity are frequently unavailable in prisons, and even some hospital venues.

Data Collection - Form 19A and 19B

The Tribunal is required under the Act to collect information concerning the number of involuntary admissions, the provisions of the Act under which they were taken to hospital and admitted and the number of magistrate's inquiries.

These details are collected by means of two forms which all hospitals are required to forward to the Tribunal (form 19A and 19B under the Mental Health Regulation 2000) with respect to each involuntary referral and magistrates inquiry.

The collection and data entry of these returns from all hospitals remains a huge workload for the Tribunal. Unfortunately, there are also compliance issues with some hospitals being unreliable with submitting their returns. This could, in turn, have some affect on the reliability of the statistical data taken from these returns.

Information from this data is contained in reports 3,4,18,19 and 22 as well as in Appendices 1 and 7.

Financial Report

The increased number of hearings conducted by the Tribunal has had a direct effect on the Tribunal's budget and expenditure. In 2003 the Tribunal had lengthy negotiations with the Department of Health on this issue. Agreement was eventually reached that additional funds were required for the Tribunal to carry out its statutory obligations. In April 2004 the Tribunal was advised that an additional $400,000 recurrent budget allocation had been approved under the Mental Health Enhancement Program.

In addition the Tribunal received a non-recurrent supplementation of $75,000 in May 2006. These funds were provided by the Department of Health to cover hearing related expenses associated with the Tribunal's continued growth in caseload.

The Tribunal is most appreciative of the support provided by the Minister and the Centre for Mental Health to assist the Tribunal in meeting its obligations for the statutory review of patients detained under the Mental Health Act.

See Appendix 5 for the Tribunal's Financial Report and details of budget and expenditure.

Information Technology

In late 2002 the Tribunal implemented a new Client Management System (CMS) to record all its client, hearing and member information. The CMS is a system that was adapted for the Tribunal by its developers Strategic Business Consulting (SBC). The CMS has continued to be further developed to meet the evolving needs of the Tribunal.

In April 2003 the Tribunal entered into a Service Level Agreement (SLA) with the Department of Health for the provision of IT support. This agreement has continued and has allowed the Tribunal to join the Department's IT network and have full access to its Intranet and Help Desk facilities.

Community Education and Liaison

During 2006 the Tribunal conducted a number of community education sessions to hospital and community staff. These sessions were used to explain the role and jurisdictions of the Tribunal and the application of the Mental Health Act. The Tribunal was also involved in training for psychiatric registrars through the Institute of Psychiatry.

The Tribunal was very pleased to release its Civil Hearing Kit in March 2006. The Kit is designed to assist doctors, case managers and others in making an application to the Tribunal. It sets out the legislative requirements in the Mental Health Act 1990 and describes the paperwork required when submitting an application to the Tribunal. It was widely distributed to all hospitals and community teams as well as being published on the Tribunal's website.

The release of the kit was followed up with 2 full day training sessions for Tribunal Liaison Clerks at hospitals and community mental health services. The Tribunal was very pleased that more than 50 key people involved in coordinating applications and supporting Tribunal hearings were able to participate in this training.

Staff and full time members of the Tribunal also attended and participated in a number of external conferences and events. These included: the Australian Institute of Judicial Administration Affordable Justice Conference, the Mental Health Services "Reach out and Connect" Conference; Forensic Psychiatry Conference and the Royal Australian and New Zealand College of Psychiatrists, Section of Forensic Psychiatry Annual Conference – Epidemics in Psychiatry.

In June 2006 the President and Registrar of the Tribunal attended the annual meeting of the heads of Mental Health Review Boards and Tribunals. This meeting was held in Darwin and was attended by representatives of the relevant Boards or Tribunals in Victoria, Queensland, Tasmania, South Australia, Western Australia, the Australian Capital Territory and Northern Territory. The meeting discussed key issues common to all mental health jurisdictions around the country.

Thank You

I continue to be impressed and appreciative of the dedication and enthusiasm of the Tribunal's staff and members who have endured the changes and challenges of the last year with good humour and an extraordinary commitment to the very important work of the Tribunal. I take this opportunity to thank them all for their continued flexibility, energy and diligence.

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION

The provisions of the Freedom of Information Act 1989 (hereafter FOI Act) do not apply to the judicial functions of the Tribunal (see sections 19(2)(a) and 19(2)(b)).

Parties to proceedings before the Tribunal, however, may obtain a copy of the record of the hearing proceedings to which they are a party, under MHA s279. This section of the MHA gives the Tribunal, before which the parties appear, the discretion to provide the recording provided the Tribunal is of the opinion that sufficient cause is shown to warrant the transcription or copy of the tape recording relating to the matter. Alternatively, the President of the Tribunal may direct that a copy of the tape recording or transcription be made and copies also provided in certain other circumstances required by law.

The administrative and policy functions of the Tribunal are, however, covered by the FOI Act. The Tribunal received no applications under the FOI Act during 2006 that related to its administration or policy functions.

DESCRIPTION OF DOCUMENTS HELD BY TRIBUNAL

SOUND RECORDINGS

- Pursuant to Section 279 of the Mental Health Act 1990, proceedings of the Tribunal are to be recorded unless the parties otherwise agree. Accordingly, the Tribunal sound records hearings and these recordings are stored for a minimum of twelve months.
- The Tribunal can provide a copy of the sound recording, and may provide a transcript of a hearing under certain circumstances, (as outlined in Section 291 of the Mental Health Act 1990) upon payment of the prescribed fee.

COMPUTER DATA BASE

- The Tribunal maintains a computer database for both administrative purposes and in order to meet its statutory reporting obligations.

Access to the database is restricted due to the confidential nature of some of the information contained therein.

A brief description of the contents of the Tribunal database is provided below:-

- CIVIL PATIENT REGISTER
  - Contains details of all civil patients who have appeared before the Tribunal.
- 2. CIVIL PATIENT REVIEWS
  - Contains details of the section(s) under which each civil patient review was held and the determination(s) made in each case.
- 3. FORENSIC PATIENT REGISTER
  - Contains details of all forensic patients who have appeared before the Tribunal.
- 4. FORENSIC PATIENT REVIEWS

Contains details of the section(s) under which each forensic patient review was held and the determination(s) made.

5. FORM 19 DATA COLLECTION

In accordance with clause 44 of the Mental Health Regulation 1990, Psychiatric hospitals are required to provide advice to the Tribunal of all people admitted to Hospital involuntarily.

PATIENT FILES

 The Tribunal currently maintains approximately 19,500 patient files for both Civil and Forensic matters. Files are identified by a patient's name and a file number. The file contains some information about each patient's clinical history, eg. copies of medical reports and details of each review.

ADMINISTRATIVE FILES

 The Tribunal currently has 510 administrative files in existence. These relate to a wide range of procedural, policy and general matters.

PUBLICATIONS

- The Tribunal publishes an Annual Report covering each calender year; as well as procedural notes and a number of information brochures.

REGISTERS

- Electric Registers are maintained for forensic and administrative files, Form 19's and incoming mail.

ROOKS

- The Tribunal maintains its own small reference library.
